To Whom it May Concern,

Top Guard Security is considered an essential and critical business per the Governor of Virginia's recent Executive Orders related to COVID-19. As a result, Top Guard Security is currently exempt from the closure orders and will remain open until further notice. This exemption similarly applies to our security officers and all staff that supports our business and processes during this time.

Top Guard Security has instituted social distancing and other mitigating measures as required and will continue to take every precaution as required so that our employees and visitors are safe.

Please do not hesitate to reach out with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Chris Stuart
Vice President
